By signing this agreement,

I have decided to make a commitment to make the effort in becoming the best version of myself.

I agree to be held accountable in my actions by a representative of the Edmundite Missions.

I trust that through this program, I will develop useful materials that will assist in my personal growth especially in the development of job skills.

I agree to invest in this program with my time and efforts.

I acknowledge that the following will be expected of me:

- I will show up to the scheduled classes.
- I will be on time.
- I will have a positive attitude and will encourage others.
- I will not cast judgement on anyone participating in the class.
- If there is a conflict and I am unable to attend a session, I will let the manager of the program know at least one day in advance. If this is to occur, I will provide a legitimate excuse for the absence.

Upon completion of this program, I will take the next step either through employment, education, or an entrepreneurial venture.

Upon completion of this program, I would be willing to be a part of an alumni network and will be open to coming back as a guest speaker for a future class.
